PART II - CONSTITUTION AND ADMINISTRATION

Section 3. Power to declare prisons.

The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, declare any house, building, enclosure or place, or any part thereof, to be a prison for the purposes of this Act for the imprisonment or detention of persons lawfully in custody and may in like manner declare that any such prison shall cease to be a prison for the purposes of this Act.

Section 4. Existing buildings declared prisons.

Subject to any declaration made under this Act, the buildings which at the commencement of this Act are in use as prisons shall be deemed to be prisons within the meaning of this Act.

Section 5. Description of prison in writs, etc.

In any writ, warrant, or other legal instrument in which it may be necessary to describe a particular prison, any description designating a prison by reference to the name of the place or town where it is situated, or other definite description, shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes.

Section 6. Appropriation of prisons to categories of prisoners.

(1) The Commissioner General may, from time to time, by order-

Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(a) appropriate certain prisons-

(i) for effecting the separation of different categories of prisoners;

(ii) for the training of different categories of prisoners; or

(iii) for any other reason;

) limit the categories of prisoners in certain prisons.

(2) A prisoner of the category for which a prison is to be designated may be lawfully conveyed to and imprisoned in that prison despite the warrant or order for the imprisonment of that prisoner shall have been issued by a court not having its ordinary jurisdiction in the place where the prison is situated.

Section 7. Appointment of lock-ups at police stations and court houses as places of detention.

(1) It shall be lawful for the Minister, by notification in the Gazette, to appoint lock-ups at such police stations and court houses as may be specified in the notification to be places for the confinement of persons, remanded or sentenced to such terms of imprisonment, not exceeding one month, as may be specified in each case.

(2) A lock-up appointed as a place of confinement under subsection (1)-

A prison officer shall perform such duties as may be prescribed.

Section 18. Weapons, accoutrements, etc.

A prison officer shall be provided with such weapons, equipment, uniform and other accoutrements as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General as necessary for the efficient performance of his duties.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

Section 19. Service in Malaysia or on board vessel, aircraft, etc.

A prison officer shall be bound to serve in any part of Malaysia or on board any vessel, aircraft, train or any other vehicle in which prisoners are being transported.

Section 19A. Service outside Malaysia

The Minister may require any prison officer to serve outside Malaysia.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.7]

Section 20. Observance of written laws and lawful orders.

A prison officer shall conform strictly to all laws and regulations relating to prisons and prisoners, and shall obey all lawful orders of his superior officers whether given verbally or in writing or issued in the form of Commissioner General's Standing Orders.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

Section 21. Prison officers deemed public servants.

The Commissioner General, Medical Officers, Dental Officers and prison officers appointed under this Act or any regulations made under the Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code [F.M.S.Cap.45].

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

Section 22. Use of weapons.

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a prison officer may use weapons against a prisoner-

(a) escaping or attempting to escape and where the prison officer has reasonable grounds to believe that he cannot otherwise prevent the escape or attempt to escape;

(b) engaged in-

(i) a combined outbreak; or

(ii) an attempt to force or break open any door, gate or enclosure wall of the prison; or

[Am. Act A1332:s.8]

(c) using violence on a person and where the prison officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is in danger of life or limb, or that other grievous hurt is likely to be caused to the person.

(2) A prison officer shall give a warning to a prisoner that he is about to fire on him before using arms in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) No prison officer shall, in the presence of his superior officer, use arms against a prisoner in the case of an outbreak or attempt to escape except under the orders of the superior officer:

Provided that the prison officer may use arms in circumstances where it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the order of the superior officer and that such circumstances are furnished to the superior officer.

(4) The use of weapons under this section shall be, as far as possible, to disable and not to kill.

(5) A police officer whilst in the capacity of an escort guard or of a guard in or about a prison or lock-up for the purpose of ensuring the safe custody of a prisoner shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

Section 23. Prison officers to have powers of police officers.

Subject to any express provision to the contrary, a prison officer while acting as such shall have by virtue of his office all the powers, authority, protection and privileges of a police officer.

Section 24. Assistance of the police in times of emergency.

Act A1332:s.3]

(2) Police officers deployed under subsection (1) shall be headed by a senior police officer and all such police officers shall be under the control and supervision of the Commissioner General or any other prison officer specially authorized for that purpose.

Act A1332:s.3]

Section 25. Prison officers not to be members of trade unions.

(1) For the purpose of enabling prison officers to consider and bring to the notice of the Government all matters affecting their welfare or efficiency, including pay, pensions and conditions of service, other than questions of discipline and promotion affecting individuals, there may be established an association which shall operate and be administered in accordance with regulations made by the Minister.

(2) An association established under subsection (1) shall be entirely independent of and be unassociated with any body of persons outside the prison department and shall be deemed not to be a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Unions Act 1959 [Act 262], and shall be exempt from the provisions of the Societies Act 1966 [Act 335].

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), no prison officer shall become a member of any trade union or of any association having for its objects or as one of its objects the control or influencing of the pay, pensions or conditions of service of prison officers.

(4) A prison officer who contravenes subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand ringgit.

(5) Any question as to whether a body is a trade union or an association to which this section applies shall be determined by the Minister.

(6) An association established prior to the coming into force of this Act under section 27A of the Prisons Ordinance 1952 [F.M. Ord.81 of 1952], shall be deemed to be an association established under subsection (1) until the association is dissolved.

PART IV - CUSTODY AND REMOVAL OF PRISONERS.

Section 26. Custody.

(1) A prisoner-

(a) confined in a prison shall be deemed to be in the lawful custody of the Officer-in-Charge of the prison;

(b) shall be subject to prison discipline and to all written laws relating to prisons or prisoners and to the Commissioner General's Standing Orders during the period of his imprisonment, whether or not he is within the precincts of a prison; and

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(c) while in the custody or under the control of a prison officer-

(i) when being taken to or from a prison;

(ii) whenever he is working outside a prison; or

(iii) is otherwise beyond the limits of the prison, shall be deemed to be in prison and shall be subject to all the same incidents as if he were actually in prison.

(2) Where a prisoner has escaped from lawful custody, the period during which he is at large shall not be reckoned as part of the sentence he was undergoing at the time of his escape.

Section 27. Delivery of persons arrested on warrant.

(1) A person arrested under a warrant or an order of a court having civil or criminal jurisdiction shall be brought before the court by which the warrant or order was issued.

(2) If the court under subsection (1) is not then sitting, the person shall be delivered to an Officer-in-Charge for intermediate custody.

(3) The Officer-in-Charge shall cause the person to be brought before that court at its next sitting in order that the person may be dealt with according to law.

Section 28. Delivery of persons on remand.

(1) A person charged with a crime or offence and remanded to a prison by a court or competent authority shall be delivered to the Officer-in-Charge of the prison together with a warrant of remand.

(2) The Officer-in-Charge shall-

(a) detain and cause to be delivered to the court or competent authority; or

(b) discharge, the person delivered under subsection (1) according to the terms of the warrant.

Section 29. Officer-in-Charge to detain persons committed.

An Officer-in-Charge shall keep and detain a person duly committed to his custody by a court or competent authority according to the terms of the warrant or order by which the person has been committed or until the person is discharged by due course of law.

Section 30. Production before the court.

(1) Whenever the presence of a prisoner is required in a court having civil or criminal jurisdiction, the court may issue an order in the prescribed form addressed to the Officer-in-Charge requiring for the production of that prisoner at the time and place to be named in the order.

(2) Upon receipt of the order, the Officer-in-Charge shall cause the prisoner named in the order to be brought up as directed and shall provide for his safe custody during his absence from prison.

(3) In the event of an adjournment of the matter in which the presence of the prisoner is required, the court may, by endorsement on the order, require the prisoner to be again brought up at the time and place named in the order.

(4) An order issued from the Federal Court, Court of Appeal or the High Court may be signed by the Registrar of the Court, and if issued by any other court shall be signed by the Sessions Court Judge, Magistrate, Registrar or such other presiding officer, as the case may be.

Section 31. Power of Commissioner General to order production in certain cases.

(1) The Commissioner General-

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(a) may, being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds requiring the presence of a prisoner at any place in Malaysia; or

(b) shall, where the presence of a prisoner is required for the purpose of any public inquiry, by order in writing, direct that the prisoner be taken to that place.

(2) A prisoner taken from a prison under subsection (1) shall, whilst outside that prison, be kept in such custody as the Commissioner General may, by order in writing, direct, and whilst in that custody shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

Section 32. Removal and transfer of prisoners.

(1) The Commissioner General may, by order in writing, remove or transfer all or any prisoners confined in a prison to any other prison.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(2) No prisoner removed under subsection (1) while in the custody of a prison officer shall be deemed to have escaped although he may be taken into different jurisdictions or to different places of confinement.

(3) For purposes of this section, it shall not be necessary in the order to identify a prisoner by name, but it shall be sufficient to describe the prisoner by reference to his nationality or sentence or by some other like general description.

Section 33. Transfer of prisoners under sentence of death.

A prisoner under sentence of death which the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, Ruler or Yang di-Pertua Negeri has ordered to be carried out may, by order of the Commissioner General, be transferred to any other prison, there to undergo his sentence.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

Section 34. Orders relating to transferred prisoners.

An order relating to the sentence of a prisoner transferred under section 32 or 33 shall have effect as if the order were directed to the Officer-in-Charge of the prison to which the prisoner is conveyed.

Section 35. Evidence.

(1) An order or a warrant made or issued by the Minister or the Commissioner General pursuant to this Act shall-

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(a) be received in evidence in all courts without further proof; and

(b) be evidence of the facts therein stated.

(2) An act done pursuant to an order or a warrant made or issued under subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been authorized by law.

Section 36. Mentally disordered prisoner.

(1) Where a prisoner undergoing a sentence of imprisonment or sentenced to death appears to the Commissioner General on the certification of the Medical Officer to be mentally disordered, the Commissioner General shall, by order in writing, direct that the prisoner be removed to, kept and treated at a mental hospital or other fit place of safe custody in Malaysia and there to be kept and treated as the Commissioner General directs.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(2) An order issued under subsection (1) shall be an authority for the reception of the prisoner and for his detention in the mental hospital or other fit place in Malaysia until removed or discharged as hereinafter provided.

(3) Where a prisoner detained in a mental hospital under subsection (1) is, in the opinion of the medical officer of the mental hospital, no longer mentally disordered, the medical officer shall report accordingly to the Commissioner General.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(4) Upon receipt of the report, the Commissioner General shall, by order in writing-

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(a) direct the return of the prisoner to the prison from where he was removed or to any other prison if his term of imprisonment has not expired; or

(b) direct the prisoner to be discharged if his term of imprisonment has expired.

(5) Where a prisoner detained under subsection (1) is, in the opinion of the medical officer of the mental hospital, still mentally disordered and the term of imprisonment to which the prisoner has been sentenced has expired-

(a) in the case of West Malaysia, section 46 of the Mental Disorders Ordinance 1952 [F.M. Ord.31/1952] shall apply to the prisoner as if he were detained in accordance with a certificate given under section 42 of the Ordinance;

(b) in the case of the Federal Territory of Labuan, as the need may arise, such provisions of the Mental Ordinance 1952 as may be extended to the Federal Territory of Labuan by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, shall apply;

(c) in the case of Sabah, subsections 70(4) to (14) of the Prisons Ordinance [Sabah Ord. 7 of 1956] shall apply; and

(d) in the case of Sarawak, subsections 34(4) to (14) of the Prisons Ordinance [Sarawak Cap. 24] shall apply.

(6) The time occupied in effecting any removal under this section and the period during which the prisoner is detained in a mental hospital shall be reckoned as part of the term of imprisonment.

Section 37. Illness of prisoner.

(1) In case of serious illness of a prisoner confined in a prison in which there are inadequate facilities for the treatment of that prisoner, the Officer-in-Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer on duty, may, on the certificate of a Medical Officer, make an order for the removal of the prisoner to a government hospital.

[Am. Act A1332:s.9]

(2) Where a Medical Officer is not available to issue a certificate for the purposes of subsection (1), the Officer in Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer on duty, may make an order for the removal of the prisoner to a government hospital, without a certificate of a Medical Officer.

[Subs. Act A1332:s.9]

(3) Where in the opinion of a medical officer of a government hospital it is necessary for a prisoner removed to the government hospital under subsection (1) or (2) to be admitted and remain in the government hospital, the medical officer of the government hospital shall transmit a certificate stating that fact to the Officer in Charge of the prison from where such prisoner was removed—

(a) upon the admission of such prisoner into the government hospital; and

(b) upon the discharge of such prisoner from the government hospital.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.9]

Section 38. Return to prison.

(1) Where a prisoner removed to a hospital under section 37 is, in the opinion of the medical officer of the hospital, no longer necessary for the prisoner to remain at the hospital, the medical officer shall transmit a certificate stating that fact to the Officer-in-Charge of the prison from where the prisoner was removed.

(2) On receipt of the certificate referred to in subsection (1), the Officer-in-Charge shall cause the prisoner to be brought back to the prison, if he is still liable to be confined in the prison.

Section 39. Liability for escape.

If a prisoner shall escape during the time he is in a hospital, no prison officer shall be liable for the escape unless the prisoner has been specifically placed in the custody of the prison officer.

Section 40. Duty to assist in preventing escape.

(1) It shall be the duty of the medical officers of the hospital to which a prisoner has been removed under section 37 to lend all assistance in order to ensure that the necessary precautions for preventing the escape of the prisoner under treatment in the hospital have been taken.

(2) It shall be lawful for the medical officers in subsection (1) to take such measures for preventing the escape of the prisoner as shall be necessary:

Provided that no measures for preventing the escape of a prisoner shall be taken which, in the opinion of the medical officers, is likely to be prejudicial to the health of the prisoner.

Section 41. Special custody in hospital.

Where from the gravity of the offence for which a prisoner may be in custody or for any other reason, the Officer-in-Charge considers it desirable to take special measures for the security of a prisoner while under treatment in a hospital, the Officer-in-Charge may, in the event of there being no prison officer available, place the prisoner into the charge of two or more fit and proper persons, one of whom shall be with the prisoner at all times,-

(a) who shall be vested with full power and authority to do all things necessary to prevent the prisoner from escaping; and

(b) who shall be answerable for the safe custody of the prisoner-

(i) until such time as the prisoner is handed over to a prison officer on his discharge from the hospital; or

(ii) until such time as the term of imprisonment of the prisoner expires, whichever may first occur.

Section 42. Removal vessel.

(1) Where it is necessary for the purposes of this Part to remove any prisoner out of Malaysia by sea or by air, he shall be removed in a vessel or aircraft to be appointed for the purpose by the Commissioner General.

[Am. Act A1332:s.3]

(2) The time occupied in effecting any removal shall be reckoned as part of the term of imprisonment.

Section 43. Release of prisoners on licence.

(1) Subject to any regulations made by the Minister, the Commissioner General may, at any time if he thinks fit, release on licence and on such conditions as may be specified in the licence, a prisoner serving any term of imprisonment.

[Am. Act A1332:s3 &s.10]

(2) The Commissioner General may, at any time,-

[Am. Act A1332:s3]

(a) modify or cancel the conditions referred to in subsection (1); or

(b) by order, recall to prison a prisoner released on licence under subsection (1) but without prejudice to the power of the Commissioner General to release the prisoner on licence again.

[Am. Act A1332:s3]

(3) Where a prisoner is recalled under paragraph (2)(b), his licence shall cease to have effect and he shall, if at large, be deemed to be unlawfully at large and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand ringgit or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

(4) A prisoner who fails to comply with any condition of the licence issued to him under subsection (1) shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand ringgit or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

Section 44. Remission of sentence.

- (1) With a view to encouraging good conduct and industry and to facilitate reformative treatment, a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment of more than one month, shall be entitled to be granted a remission of his sentence.
- (2) All or any part of the remission for which a prisoner may be entitled may, on commission of an offence under section 50 or an offence relating to parole, be cancelled by the Commissioner General:

Act A1332:s.3 & s11]

Provided that in no case shall any forfeiture exceed the amount of remission earned at the time of commission of the offence.

(3) The Commissioner General may restore to a prisoner all or any part of a remission which the prisoner has forfeited during his sentence.

[Am. Act A1332:s3]

(4) A prisoner who is awarded a remission of part of his sentence shall be discharged upon the expiration of so much of his sentence as shall remain after deducting from it such part.

Section 45. Discharge of prisoners.

(1) An Officer-in-Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer on duty, shall be responsible for the due discharge of a prisoner immediately upon his becoming entitled to release, whether by-

- (a) the expiration of his term of sentence;
- (b) payment of fine;
- (c) pardon;
- (d) commutation; or
- (e) remission of sentence.

(3) Subject to the approval of the Commissioner General and at the expense of the Government, a prisoner duly discharged from prison in accordance with this section may be returned to the place where the prisoner ordinarily resides.

[Am. Act A1332:s3]

Section 46. Saving powers of the High Court.

Nothing in this Act shall be held to lessen or affect the powers of the Judges of the High Court to direct persons confined in any prison to be brought before the Court under the provisions of Chapter XXXVI of the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593].

- (c) a senior police officer;

(d) a senior welfare officer; and

(e) three members of the public.

(3) Every member shall hold office for a period of three years and is eligible for reappointment.

(4) The appointment of any member of a Parole Board may be revoked by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong at any time without assigning any reason for it.

(5) A member of a Parole Board may at any time resign his office by a written notice addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

(6) A Parole Board shall have its sittings as and when necessary at such time and place to be decided by the Chairman of the Parole Board.

(7) The quorum of a sitting of a Parole Board shall be five members including the Chairman of the Parole Board.

(8) Every member present at a sitting of a Parole Board shall be entitled to one vote and any decision by a Parole Board shall be determined by a majority of votes.

(9) In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the Parole Board shall have a casting vote, in addition to his deliberative vote.

(10) Subject to this Act and any directions of the Minister a Parole Board may regulate its own procedure.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46C. Powers of Parole Board

(1) With a view to encouraging good conduct and industry and to facilitate reformative treatment of a prisoner, a Parole Board shall have the following powers:

(a) to make a decision whether to release on parole a prisoner who applies for parole;

(b) to suspend or revoke a Parole Order;

(c) to add or vary any conditions of a Parole Order;

(d) to hold an inquiry on any matters related to parole;

(e) to examine any prisoner for the purposes of soliciting additional information related to a parole application or for any other reason that the Parole Board deems fit; and

(f) to exercise and perform such other functions and duties as the Minister may determine.

(2) A Parole Board may establish a secretariat as it deems necessary or expedient to assist it in the performance of its functions and duties and the exercise of its powers under this Act.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46D. Parolee subject to this Part

Notwithstanding section 29, a Parole Order may be issued to any prisoner eligible for parole who has been committed to the custody of an Officer in Charge under that section and where such Parole Order is issued, such prisoner shall be subject to and dealt with under this Part.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46E. Eligibility for parole

(1) A prisoner who is serving a sentence of imprisonment for any offence prescribed in the Fourth Schedule shall not be eligible for parole.

(2) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette amend the Fourth Schedule.

(3) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (6), a prisoner shall only be eligible to be considered for parole—

(a) if he is sentenced to a minimum of one year imprisonment for any offence other than the offences prescribed in the Fourth Schedule;

(b) subject to subsection (7), after he has served at least half of his term of imprisonment without taking into account the remission of sentence granted to him under section 44; and

(c) after he has undergone a rehabilitation program approved by the Commissioner General while serving his sentence of imprisonment.

(4) Where there is a charge for any offence, other than an offence prescribed in the Fourth Schedule, pending in any court against any prisoner, such prisoner shall be eligible to be considered for parole only after the final decision of such pending charge has been made.

(5) Where there is an appeal relating to any offence, other than an offence prescribed in the Fourth Schedule, pending in any court in respect of any prisoner, such prisoner shall be eligible to be considered for parole only after the final decision of such pending appeal has been made.

(6) Where a prisoner has the right to a pardon relating to any offence, other than an offence prescribed in the Fourth Schedule, such prisoner shall be eligible to be considered for parole—

(a) only after his case has first been brought before a Pardons Board, unless he is discharged upon pardon, reprieve or respite by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong or Ruler or Yang di-Pertua Negeri of a State, as the case may be; or

(b) subject to subsection (7), only after he has served at least half of his term of imprisonment without taking into account the remission of sentence granted to him under section 44,

whichever is the later.

(7) For the purposes of paragraphs (3)(b) and (6)(b)—

(a) in relation to such term of imprisonment to be served concurrently, half of the term of imprisonment means half of the longest of such term of imprisonment to be served currently; and

(b) in relation to such terms of imprisonment to be served consecutively, half of the term of imprisonment means half of the total of all of such terms of imprisonment to be served consecutively.

(8) Notwithstanding that a prisoner has been granted remission of sentence under section 44, the eligibility of such prisoner to be considered for parole shall not be affected

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46F. Matters for Parole Board to take into account before making Parole Order

In deciding whether or not to release a prisoner on parole, the Parole Board—

(a) shall examine and evaluate the parole dossiers received from a prison officer in respect of such prisoner and any other report prepared by any prison officer in relation to an application for release on parole of such prisoner; and

(b) shall have regard to the following matters:

(i) the need to protect the safety of the community;

(ii) the need to maintain public confidence in the administration of justice;

(iii) the nature and circumstances of the offence to which the sentence of the prisoner relates;

(iv) the prisoner's criminal record;

(v) the risk of the prisoner re-offending if he is released on parole;

(vi) the likelihood of the prisoner being able to adapt to normal community life;

(vii) the likely effect on the victim of the prisoner and the victim's family, if the prisoner is released on parole;

(viii) in the case of a foreign prisoner, the availability of parole system or other similar system in his country; and

(ix) such other matters as the Parole Board considers relevant.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46G. Proceedings before Parole Board

(1) If a Parole Board considers that the appearance of a prisoner who is applying for parole is necessary, the Parole Board may serve a notice on such prisoner to appear before the Parole Board at the time and place specified in the notice.

(2) The prison officer shall make the necessary arrangements to procure the attendance of the prisoner before the Parole Board.

(3) If the prisoner is unable to appear before the Parole Board because of illness or attending any court proceedings or any other reasonable grounds, he may submit a written representation to the Parole Board.

(4) All proceedings before a Parole Board under this section shall be held in camera and no legal representation on behalf of a prisoner shall be allowed.

[Ins. Act A1332s.13]

Section 46H. Decision of Parole Board

(1) Where a Parole Board makes a decision not to release a prisoner on parole, the Parole Board shall inform the decision in writing—

(a) to the Commissioner General;

(b) to the Officer in Charge of the prison in which the prisoner is serving his sentence of imprisonment; and

(c) to the prisoner concerned.

(2) A prisoner may reapply for parole six months after the date of the decision of a Parole Board not to release him on parole.

(3) Where a Parole Board makes a decision to release a prisoner on parole, the Parole Board shall issue a Parole Order specifying the date of release on parole and the parole district where such parolee is to serve the parole subject to such conditions as may be determined by the Parole Board.

(4) A copy of the Parole Order shall be served on—

- (a) the Commissioner General;
- (b) the Officer in Charge of the prison in which the parolee is serving his sentence of imprisonment immediately before the date of the Parole Order;
- (c) the parole officer in charge of the parole district where the parolee is to serve the parole; and
- (d) the parolee concerned.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46I. Prisoner serving parole deemed to continue serving sentence

(1) A parolee is deemed to continue serving his sentence of imprisonment during the period of parole—

- (a) that begins on the date of release on parole specified in the Parole Order; and
- (b) that ends upon the expiration of his sentence of imprisonment taking into account so much of his sentence as shall remain after deducting from it such part of remission of sentence granted, or when the Parole Order is suspended or revoked.

(2) The period of parole prescribed in subsection (1) shall be reckoned as part of the term of imprisonment.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46J. Duties of parole officer

(1) A parolee in respect of whom a Parole Order has been issued shall be taken by a prison officer to the place where such parolee is to serve the parole and placed into the charge of a parole officer.

(2) A parolee shall be under the custody and supervision of a parole officer throughout the parole period.

(3) Whenever a warrant or an order requiring for the production of a parolee is issued by a court, or whenever an order is issued by the Commissioner General, requiring the presence of the parolee at any place outside his parole district, for any reasonable grounds, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner General, it shall be the duty of a parole officer to cause the parolee named in the warrant or order to be brought up as directed and to provide for his safe custody.

(4) A parole officer shall cause to be maintained a register relating to the parolees in his parole district containing such details and in such form as the Minister may determine.

(5) Subject to any express provision to the contrary, a parole officer while acting as such shall have by virtue of his office all the powers, authority, protection and privileges of a police officer.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46K. Duties of parolee

It shall be the duty of a parolee—

- (a) to report to a parole officer at such time and date as such parole officer may from time to time direct;
- (b) to reside at the place specified in the Parole Order;
- (c) to seek the permission of a parole officer if the parolee wants to visit a place outside the parole district where the parolee is serving his parole;
- (d) to enter into employment arranged or agreed by the parole officer;
- (e) to undergo any programmes for his rehabilitation as may be organized or directed by a parole officer;
- (f) to comply with the conditions of the Parole Order; and
- (g) to comply with any other conditions, instructions and directions as may be given by the Parole Board or a parole officer.

[Ins. Act A1332]

Section 46L. Change of parole district

(1) An application may be made by a parole officer in charge of a parolee or a parolee to the Parole Board for a change of the parole district of a parolee.

(2) A Parole Board may, upon satisfaction of the grounds of an application to change the parole district of a parolee, allow the application subject to such conditions as the Parole Board may impose and issue a notice to that effect.

(3) A copy of the notice under subsection (2) shall be served on—

- (a) the Commissioner General;
- (b) the Officer in Charge of the prison in which the parolee is serving his sentence of imprisonment immediately before the date of the Parole Order;
- (c) the parole officer in charge of the parole district of the parolee immediately before the change of the parole district of such parolee;
- (d) the parole officer in charge of the parole district where the parolee is to serve the parole pursuant to the change of parole district; and
- (e) the parolee concerned.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46M. Suspension and revocation of Parole Order

(1) Where a parole officer finds that a parolee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of section 46K or any condition stated in a Parole Order, the parole officer—

(a) shall submit a report to the Parole Board through its secretariat; and

(b) shall place the parolee into the charge of the Officer in Charge of the nearest prison.

(2) A Parole Board may suspend a Parole Order—

(a) upon receiving a report from a parole officer that a parolee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of section 46K or any conditions stated in a Parole Order; or

(b) if the Parole Board has reasonable grounds to believe that the Parole Order was issued on false or misleading information.

(3) A Parole Board may serve a notice on the parolee to appear before the Parole Board for an inquiry and the parolee may make a representation to the Parole Board.

(4) A Parole Board shall examine and evaluate any report submitted by a parole officer in respect of a parolee who has failed to comply with any of the provisions of section 46K or any condition stated in a Parole Order, and any representations made by the parolee.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3) and section 52, a Parole Board may revoke a Parole Order at any time, without giving the parolee the right to make any representation—

(a) if the parolee commits any offence and is charged in any court for such offence; or

(b) if the parolee leaves the parole district without the permission of a parole officer.

(6) If the Parole Board is satisfied that the parolee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of section 46K or any conditions stated in a Parole Order, the Parole Board may—

(a) impose further conditions on the Parole Order;

(b) vary the existing conditions of the Parole Order; or

(c) revoke the Parole Order.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46N. Effect of revocation of Parole Order

(1) Where a Parole Order is revoked, unless the prisoner to whom such Parole Order relates is deemed to be unlawfully at large under subsection (3), such prisoner shall be taken into custody by a parole officer and shall be delivered to the Officer in Charge of the nearest prison for immediate custody.

(2) The Officer in Charge shall as soon as may be practicable cause the prisoner in subsection (1) to be removed, transferred or taken to the prison where he was serving his sentence of imprisonment immediately before the issue of the Parole Order to undergo his remaining sentence.

(3) Where the Parole Order is revoked pursuant to paragraph 46M(5)(b), and if the parolee is at large, such parolee shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large and shall, on conviction, be liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years.

(4) Where a parolee who has been convicted under subsection (3) is sentenced to imprisonment, such imprisonment shall commence either immediately or at the expiration of the imprisonment to which he has been previously sentenced, as the court awarding the sentence may direct.

(5) Upon revocation of a Parole Order, all or any part of the remission for which a prisoner may be entitled may be cancelled by the Commissioner General.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

Section 46O. Period while parolee is at large not to be reckoned as part of sentence

Where a parolee is deemed to be unlawfully at large, the period during which he is at large shall not be reckoned as part of the term of the sentence of imprisonment he was undergoing at the time of his being at large.

[Ins. Act A1332:s.13]

PART V - EMPLOYMENT AND PRISON DISCIPLINE

Section 47. Effect of sentence of imprisonment.

(1) A sentence of imprisonment passed or to be passed upon a prisoner shall subject the prisoner during the term of his sentence-

(a) to be imprisoned, subject to his being released on parole; and

[Am. Act A1332:s.15]

(b) to work at such labour as may be directed by the Officer-in-Charge and, so far as is practicable, such labour shall take place-

(i) in association;

(ii) outside cell;

(iii) outside the limits of the prison as approved by the Director General.

(2) The Medical Officer may certify a prisoner as-

(a) unfit and recommend that the prisoner be excused from labour; or

(b) fit only to perform light labour.

(3) A prisoner under subsection (2) shall only be required to work on any labour prescribed as light labour.

Section 48. Scheme for prisoners to engage in employment.

(1) For the purpose of enabling prisoners, other than the prisoners referred to in section 49, to take up gainful employment whilst they are serving their sentences, the Minister may introduce a scheme and such prisoners may upon their own election participate in the scheme.

(2) A prisoner taking up employment under a scheme referred to in subsection (1)-

(a) may, despite an order made by a court for the committal of the prisoner, be taken daily beyond the limits of the prison to perform work; and

(b) shall, at all times be deemed to be in prison and subject to all the same incidents as if he were actually in prison.

Section 49. Segregation of prisoners.

(1) A prisoner-

(a) confined under civil process;

(b) on remand charged with a crime or an offence;

(c) committed to take his trial; or

(d) confined for want of sureties, shall not ordinarily be associated with prisoners serving their sentences of imprisonment or be required to labour beyond such labour as is reasonably proper for keeping his person and dress in a proper state and keeping the place in which he is confined clean.

(2) Where a prisoner under subsection (1) elects to be employed during the period he is confined, he shall receive payment for the employment at such rates as may, from time to time, be prescribed.

(3) A young prisoner shall, so far as local conditions permit, be kept apart from adults under detention.

(4) Where it appears to the Officer-in-Charge that it is desirable for the good order and discipline of a prison or for any other reason that a prisoner be segregated, it shall be lawful for the officer to order the segregation of the prisoner for such period as he may consider necessary.

Section 50. Punishment of prison offences by Officer-in-Charge.

(1) An Officer-in-Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer who has been authorized by the Officer in Charge, may punish a prisoner found after due inquiry to be guilty of a minor prison offence by ordering him to undergo one or more of the following punishments:

[Am Act A1332:s. 16]

(a) reprimand;

(b) reduction in stage;

(c) postponement of promotion in stage;

(d) forfeiture of privileges;

(e) removal from the earnings scheme;

(f) reduction in earnings grade;

(g) forfeiture of remission not exceeding such amount as may be prescribed;

(h) separate confinement in a cell on the prescribed restricted diet for a term not exceeding such period as may be prescribed.

(2) The punishments referred to in paragraphs (b) to (f) of subsection (1) shall be for such period as may be prescribed.

(3) Where an Officer-in-Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer who has been authorized by the Officer in Charge, finds a prisoner after due inquiry to be guilty of an aggravated prison offence, the Officer-in-Charge, or in his absence, the next senior prison officer who has been authorized by the Officer in Charge, may punish the prisoner by ordering him to undergo one or more of the punishments listed in subsection (1) or in addition to or in lieu thereof, impose corporal punishment with a rattan, not exceeding such number of strokes as may be prescribed:

[Am Act A1332:s. 13]

Provided that any corporal punishment ordered shall be subject to confirmation by the Minister

Section 51. Register of punishments.

The Officer-in-Charge shall enter in a register to be open to the inspection of the Visiting Justices a record of the punishments imposed by him upon prisoners showing, in respect of each prisoner punished, the name of the prisoner, the nature of his offence and the extent of his punishment.

Section 52. Prisoner may make his defence.

No prisoner shall be punished until he has had an opportunity-

(a) of hearing the charge or complaint against him and the evidence in support thereof;
and

(b) of making his defence and calling of evidence in support thereof

Section 53. Prosecution for offences.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to exempt any prisoner from being proceeded against for any offence by the ordinary course of law, but no prisoner shall be punished twice for the same offence.

PART VI – OFFENCES

Section 54. Offences concerning prison supplies.

(1) No prison officer, Medical Officer, Dental Officer or staff employed by the prison department shall-

(a) directly or indirectly have any pecuniary interest in the purchase of prison supplies;
